They are right, we should have come to school. You think I got by butt chewed on Monday by parents!

Jim,

I have faith in the board and think I want to pass on the Waverly opportunity. I think I want to battle for my job here, make the changes I need to make and continue to charge ahead. I think Jim K. will support me. I know you would lead me in the right direction. Am I making a good decision? I plan on sending out an e-mail to the board later today, but wanted your thoughts.

Mike

My first thought is to wait on sending anything to the board pertaining to your Waverly decision (which I also believe is a good one), since you have until Monday – let us stew about the implications that decision would draw for the district and allow the process at hand to come to a conclusion. I'm having a meeting with Dee later this afternoon (was scheduled for this AM but she didn't like the white-out conditions), I'm not saying any instant miracles are going to take place but there are some things I want to convey to her face-to-face about this process we've been following.

I also plan on meeting with Joyce.
